

MORRISVILLE

Mrs. Claude Kittredge, Mrs. Laura Titus and Miss Rena Angell of Hardwick were guests of friends in town last week Wednesday.

L. M. Mayott, Miss Bessie Mayott and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Decell were in Stowe Sunday to attend the funeral of John Drugg.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jerome of Littleton, N. H., were in town Saturday and Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Jerome's father, Allen Flood.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wheeler and daughter, Miss Marion Benson, were in Waterbury Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Wheeler's father, Nathan W. Leach, who died April 13 at Hardwick.

Misses Harriet Hatch, Grace Corrow, Madeine Brodie and Mrs. Eva Lyons of Hardwick were in town last Friday night to attend the linen shower given Miss Reba Delano at the Citizens Telephone office.

Firemen's Ball Friday Evening

The Firemen's Ball at townhall Friday evening of this week will be an event worthy of a large patronage and those in charge of the arrangements expect a large attendance. Good music and a good time are assured. Attend.

Morrisville-Stowe Stage Line

C. L. Gates was in Barre last week and purchased a Buick touring car to add to his automobile equipment for the Morrisville-Stowe stage route. This new acquisition is equipped with a powerful engine and will carry as many passengers as can be loaded in, besides a "trailer" for baggage, which Mr. Gates expects will arrive soon. With two large, comfortable touring cars, and other conveyance if necessary, this overland route promises to be more popular than ever this season. The early stage, leaving Morrisville at 6:30 will be put on again in a few days.

A Linen Shower

Miss Reba Delano, a popular operator in the Citizens Telephone office for several years, was given a surprise linen shower last Friday evening at the office in the Centennial Block. Nineteen young lady friends of Miss Delano were present and the evening was most enjoyably spent. The two front offices were tastefully decorated in blue and pink crepe paper and large bells and the entire company was gathered there when Miss Juliet Brooks and Miss Delano arrived, the former having asked Miss Delano to go up to the office with her upon a pretense of getting some article which she had forgotten. A delightful evening's entertainment had been arranged by the young ladies of the office, which included a contest entitled, "The Forest Primeval," two enjoyable readings by Miss Gwendolen Smith and graphanola music. Going to the telephone booth—which was decorated in blue and white—to answer a call, Miss Delano found a large shower of linen and other presents suspended from the top of the booth.

Tempting refreshments of cake, sandwiches, coffee and homemade candy was served by Misses Lena Sears, Winnie Beidel, Hazel Sherman and Bertha Durgin. The placecards consisted of dainty hand-painted cards, the work of Mrs. Clayton Cornell. Upon each card some clever picture or sentiment suggestive of the telephone girls' work, was painted and the same idea was carried out upon each page of a book of recipes presented to the hostess of honor.

RESOLUTIONS

ON THE DEATH OF BRO. NOEL B. BLAIR

WHEREAS—It has seemed best for the Ruler of All to call from our midst Bro. Noel B. Blair to the celestial lodge above, be it

Resolved—That in the calling of this brother, Mt. Vernon Lodge loses a loyal member, the community a universal friend and the home a beloved one. It should admonish us of the uncertainty of human life and in some measure serve as a reminder that the example of his life and character may be safely followed.

Resolved—That Mt. Vernon Lodge extend to the family of the deceased brother their sincere sympathy in their present great bereavement.

Resolved—That a copy of these resolutions be tendered the family, that they be published in the News and Citizen, also spread upon the records of the Lodge.

Home, Where the Hat Is

Several sages have given their opinion on what constitutes a man's home. One remarked it was where the heart was, but a New York judge has just given a judicial ruling it is where the hat is. In his decision the surrogate declared home is not a term of art and by custom of this country hotels in New York are very often the "homes" of people who for various reasons prefer living in them to the more burdensome occupation of private dwellings or apartments.

TONE UP THE BLOOD

Hood's Sarsaparilla, a Spring Tonic-Medicine, is Necessary.

Everybody is troubled at this season with loss of vitality, failure of appetite, that tired feeling, or with bilious turns, dull headaches, indigestion and other stomach troubles, or with pimples and other eruptions on the face and body. The reason is that the blood is impure and impoverished.

Hood's Sarsaparilla relieves all these ailments. Ask your druggist for this medicine and get it today. It is the old reliable medicine that has stood the test for forty years—that makes pure, rich blood—that strengthens every organ and builds up the whole system. It is the all-the-year-round blood-purifier and health-giver. Nothing else acts like it, for nothing else is like it; so be sure to get Hood's.

Death of U. A. Woodbury

Ex-Gov. U. A. Woodbury died at his home in Burlington last Thursday evening. He had been in ill health for several weeks as the result of a shock sustained at Battle Creek, Mich., some time ago.

About two weeks ago he was brought to Vermont from Battle Creek, making the trip in a private car. For several days after reaching his home encouraging reports came from his bedside.

Urban Adrian Woodbury was born in Acworth, N. H., July 11, 1838, the son of Albert M. and Lucy L. (Wadleigh) Woodbury, and came to Vermont with his parents when two years old. He was educated in the public schools of his native town and in the Peoples Academy at Morristown and graduated from the medical department of the University of Vermont in 1859. His career as a doctor, however, was turned aside when he enlisted in the Civil war.

He was married in 1860 to Miss Paulina L. Darling of Elmore, who survives him. He also leaves six children, Charles L. Woodbury and Edward P. Woodbury of Burlington, Mrs. J. Walter May of Boston, Mrs. Geo. M. Powers of Morrisville, Mrs. Walter C. Lane of Winthrop and Mrs. Guy M. Page of Burlington.

For 19 years Mr. Woodbury was manager of the Bath Lumber company of Burlington and for 35 years was owner and proprietor of the Van Ness house in this city, which he sold two months ago. At the time of his death he was president and principal owner of the Mead Manufacturing company and the Crystal Confectionary company, and president of the Queen City Cotton company, all Burlington enterprises.

On May 25, 1861, he enlisted in the 21 Vermont regiment and lost his right arm in the First Battle of Bull Run. In connection with Mr. Woodbury's wound C. A. Benedict, in his "Vermont in the Civil War," says "this was the first sleeve emptied by a rebel shot among the Vermont troops." Mr. Woodbury was taken prisoner and confined in Richmond, Va., being paroled in October, 1861. He served as captain of Company D, 11th Vermont, captain of 13th Veteran Reserve corps and from 1884 to 1886 served as colonel on the staff of Gov. Barstow.

In politics Mr. Woodbury was always a republican, having served as alderman of Burlington in 1882 and 1883 and as mayor of that city in 1885 and 1886. He was elected lieutenant governor in 1888 and was governor of Vermont from 1894 to 1896. In September, 1898, he was appointed by President McKinley a member of the commission to investigate the conduct of the war department in the war with Spain.

Gov. Woodbury was a member of the First Congregational church of Burlington, of the various Masonic, Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias bodies of that city. He was past department commander of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion and of the Vermont G. A. R.

WHEN THE TIRED MOTHER GIVES OUT

What Then?—The Family Suffers, the Poor Mothers Suffer—Mrs. Becker Meets This Distressing Situation.

Collinsville, Ill.—"I suffered from a nervous break-down and terrible headaches, and was tired all over, totally worn out and too discouraged to enjoy life, but as I had four in family and sometimes eight or nine boarders, I kept on working despite my suffering.

"I saw Vinol advertised and decided to try it, and within two weeks I noticed a decided improvement in my condition and now I am a well woman."

—Mrs. ANA BECKER, Collinsville, Ill.

There are hundreds of nervous, run-down, overworked women in this vicinity who are hardly able to drag around and who we are sure would be wonderfully benefited by Vinol as Mrs. Becker was.

The reason Vinol is so successful in building up health and strength in such cases is because it combines the medicinal tissue building and curative elements of cod's livers together with the blood-making, strengthening properties of tonic iron. We ask every weak, nervous, run-down man or woman in this vicinity to try a bottle of Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if it fails to benefit.

Why grin and bear all these ills when Sloan's Liniment kills pain?

"I have used your Liniment and can say it is fine. I have used it for sore throat, strained shoulder, and it acted like a charm."—Allen Dunn, Route 1, Box 88, Pine Valley, Miss.

"I am a painter and paperhanger by trade, consequently up and down ladders. About two years ago my left knee became lame and sore. It pained me at nights at times till I could not rest, and I was contemplating giving up my trade on account of it when I chanced to think of Sloan's Liniment. I had never tried it before, and I am glad to state that less than one 25c. bottle fixed me up apparently as good as ever."—Charles C. Campbell, Florence, Texas.
